What other groups besides Ashkenazim can serve as literal impostors, "passing" for White?

What other groups have tried to do what they've done, in the same period of time?

And still, you would place the blame on White Americans as opposed to those other groups.

You've all but fallen into the nirvana fallacy.

You've agreed throughout that Jews do exactly what I've said they do.

Your sole rejoinder is that Whites "let" them do it, and are thus somehow MORE to blame - that some race, if not Jews, INEVITABLY would have done this to Whites

You keep moving the goalposts.

Me, calling out the Jews here and now, IS an example of Whites "more strongly resisting", which your tone would suggest you want.

Your actions, however, are to take even that and gainsay it, pointing the finger back at Whites.

So which is it?

I take a perverse pleasure in having carried this Spike's lower in the defense of Justice Park on August 12th. I used this rifle to chase off James Fields from our block of 4th St before he attacked the marchers to the south. Spike's needs a good lesson in ethics and antifascism.

There is a hierarchy to all teaching/law. Christ was Logos incarnate. No amount of Church doctrine can ever be properly construed as overriding Natural Law - using our unique gift of reason to deduce truth about God and his intentions.

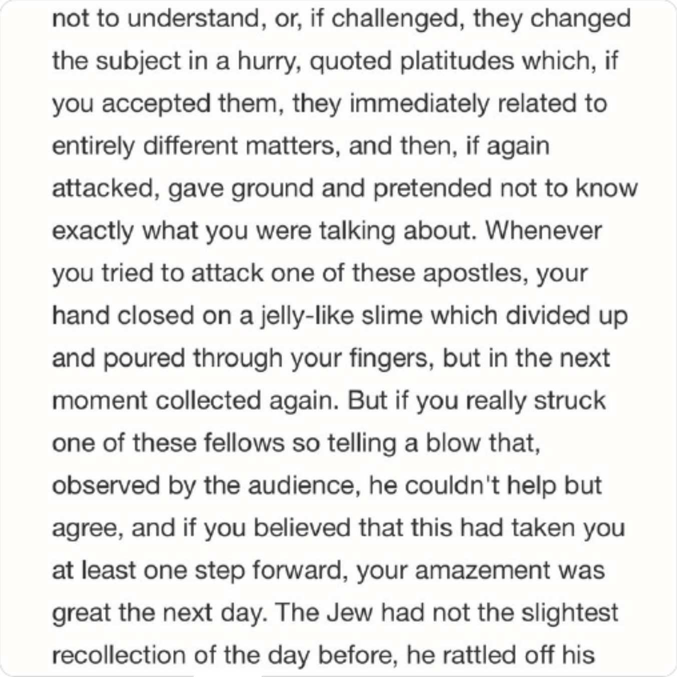
You'll just do what you've done here continuously: move the goalposts by claiming it isn't "credible" (due to "anti-Semitism", no doubt) or that the letter doesn't settle the matter of Jesus' ethnicity.

Because there's an eternal pattern at work here. Uncle knew:



not to understand, or, if challenged, they changed the subject in a hurry, quoted platitudes which, if you accepted them, they immediately related to entirely different matters, and then, if again attacked, gave ground and pretended not to know exactly what you were talking about. Whenever you tried to attack one of these apostles, your hand closed on a jelly-like slime which divided up and poured through your fingers, but in the next moment collected again. But if you really struck one of these fellows so telling a blow that, observed by the audience, he couldn't help but agree, and if you believed that this had taken you at least one step forward, your amazement was great the next day. The Jew had not the slightest recollection of the day before, he rattled off his expounded and debated the Torah (the written Torah expressed in the Hebrew Bible) and discussed the Tanakh without the benefit of written works (other than the Biblical books themselves), though some may have made private notes (megillot setarim), for example, of court decisions. This situation changed drastically, mainly as the result of the destruction of the Jewish commonwealth and the Second Temple in the year 70 and the consequent upheaval of Jewish social and legal norms. As the rabbis were required to face a new reality—mainly Judaism without a Temple (to serve as the center of teaching and study) and Judea, the Roman province, without at least partial autonomy—there was a flurry of legal discourse and the old system of oral scholarship could not be maintained.

Speaking of appropriation and change... you do know that what is called Judaism against the Romans, but my fears were soon dispelled. Jesus of Nazareth spoke rather as a friend of the Romans than of the Jews. One day I observed in the midst of a group of people a young man who was leaning against a tree, calmly addressing the multitude. I was told it was Jesus. This I could easily have suspected so great was the difference between Him and those who were listening to Him. His golden colored hair and beard gave to his appearance a celestial aspect. He appeared to be about 30 years of age. Never have I seen a sweeter or more serene countenance. What a contrast between Him and His bearers with their black beards and tawny complexions! Unwilling to interrupt Him by my presence, I continued my walk but signified to my secretary to join the group and listen. Later, my secretary reported that never had he seen in the works of all the philosophers anything that compared to the teachings of Jesus. He told me that Jesus was neither seditious nor rebellious, so we extended to Him our protection. He was at liberty to act, to speak, to assemble and to address the people. This unlimited freedom provoked the Jews -- not the poor but the rich and powerful.

The disciples, yes. Racial Jews. Jesus himself is referred to as Galilean or Nazarene, with contemporary descrip ions noting his stark physical difference from the Jews.

Later, I wrote to Jesus requesting an interview with Him at the Praetorium. He came. When the Nazarene made His appearance I was having my morning walk and as I faced Him my feet seemed fastened with an iron hand to the marble pavement and I trembled in every limb as a guilty culprit, though he was calm. For some time I stood admiring this extraordinary Man. There was nothing in Him that was repelling, nor in His character, yet I felt awed in His presence. I told Him that there was a magnetic simplicity about Him and His personality that elevated Him far above the philosophers and teachers of His day.

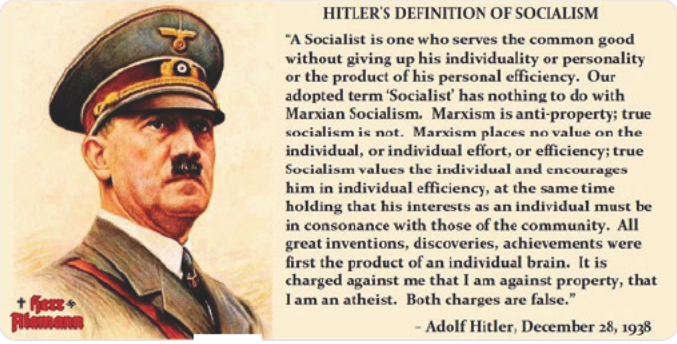
^ True of ALMOST everything called "Socialism", because it's nothing more than an incremental form of Communism. But there was - and is - another way:



HITLER'S DEFINITION OF SOCIALISM

"A Socialist is one who serves the common good without giving up his individuality or personality or the product of his personal efficiency. Our adopted term 'Socialist' has nothing to do with Marxian Socialism. Marxism is anti-property; true socialism is not. Marxism places no value on the individual, or individual effort, or efficiency; true Socialism values the individual and encourages him in individual efficiency, at the same time holding that his interests as an individual must be in consonance with those of the community. All great inventions, discoveries, achievements were first the product of an individual brain. It is charged against me that I am against property, that I am an atheist. Both charges are false."

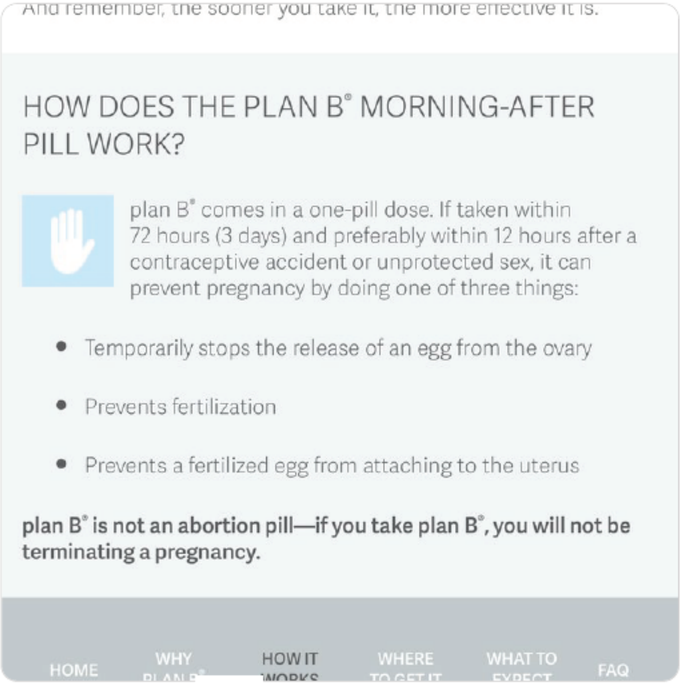
The statement that the drug doesn't "terminate a pregnancy" is technically correct but deliberately misleading. It can and will prevent a fertilized egg (conception has occurred) from taking hold. Plan B curiously omits this from their US website, but not the Canadian one.



And remember, the sooner you take it, the more effective it is.

HOW DOES THE PLAN B® MORNING-AFTER PILL WORK?

plan B® comes in a one-pill dose. If taken within 72 hours (3 days) and preferably within 12 hours after a contraceptive accident or unprotected sex, it can prevent pregnancy by doing one of three things:

- Temporarily stops the release of an egg from the ovary
- Prevents fertilization
- Prevents a fertilized egg from attaching to the uterus plan B® is not an abortion pill—if you take plan B®, you will not be terminating a pregnancy.

HISTORY. A meaningful Jewish presence in the DRC goes back to about 1904 when, under King Leopold II (1835~1909), the 2nd King of the Belgians and founder and controller of the Congo Free State (1885~1908), Jews arrived from Belgium and South Africa. They were Ashkenazi hailing mainly from central Europe, Lithuania, and Russia. A second wave of Jewish arrivals came in 1923 and they were predominantly Sephardim from Rhodes Island. With the building of a railway from Lubumbashi to Kinshasa and the Atlantic Ocean, Jewish businesses of all sorts cropped up along the line, even in remote areas, but eventually, the Jewish communities grew in the main towns of Elizabethville (today, Lubumbashi), Luluabourg (today, Kananga), and Leopoldville (today, Kinshasa). Some of the early Jewish pioneers included Solomon Benatar, Ruben Amato, Nelson Hazan, Simon Israel. Other Jewish names include Surmani, Habib, Blattner, Alhadeff, Cohen, Piha, and Mizrahi.

These Jewish pioneers faced many challenges including the threat of malaria (the disease is still today a huge risk in the DRC). While they helped establish the Belgian Congo, the 1929 stock market crash left many in the Congo in bankruptcy forcing them into a sort of economic exile. The majority of the Ashkenazi

This is a false choice.

God created racial diversity and wills its maintenance. Indeed, where miscegenation isn't rampant, evolution is accelerating.

We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist Party. In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavor to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. nytimes.com/2017/09/01/wor…

Francis, born Jorge Mario Bergoglio, established a rapport with the therapist, who was a woman, and she called him when she was close to dying. "Not to receive the sacraments, since she was Jewish, but for a spiritual dialogue," Francis was quoted as saying. "She was a good person."

The pontiff also highly praised the influence of "true women" in his life, including his grandmothers, his mother and the communist Esther Ballestrino de Careaga, founder of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo movement in Argentina, who demanded that the military dictatorship reveal the fate of disappeared children.

The invention of a term isn't necessarily linked with the frequency of its usage. If you discount the Trotsky anecdote, any number of other origin explanations predate the uptick on the graph, generally confining themselves to the sometime between approximately 1890 and 1920.

Citation needed.

Most all terrorists are Sunnis, not Shiites, many of them from Saudi Arabia, literal puppet state of “our greatest ally”.

Shiites - Syrians and others, with major support from Iran (and Russia) - defeated ISIS.

Wallace was born in Chicago, Illinois, to longtime CBS 60 Minutes reporter Mike Wallace and Norma Kaphan.[4] Wallace is Jewish[5] and both his parents were Jewish.[6][7] His parents divorced when he was one year old. He grew up in a home with his mother and his stepfather, former CBS News President Bill Leonard.[8] He did not develop a relationship with his biological father until the age of 14.[9] Leonard gave him early exposure to political journalism, hiring him as an assistant to Walter Cronkite at the 1964 Republican National Convention.

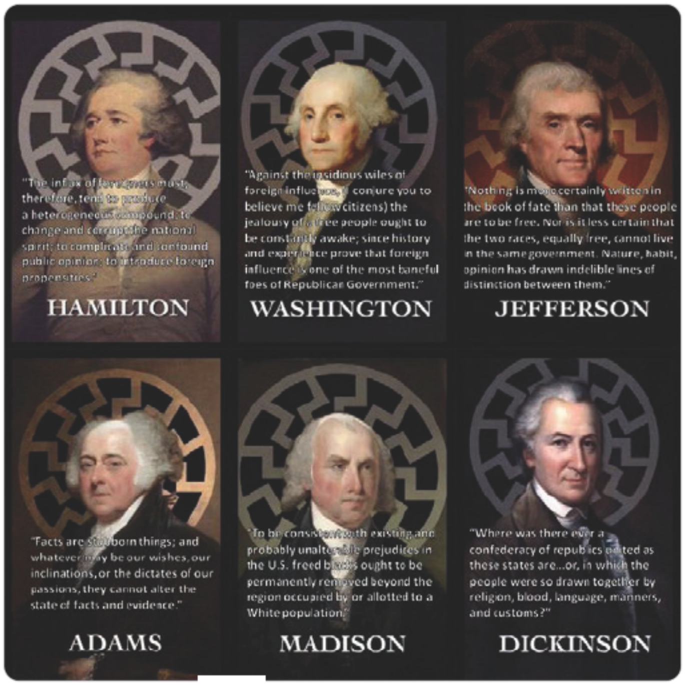
Racialism is something they (properly) took for granted, and yet STILL thought it important enough to explicitly endorse.

Their progeny for generations maintained “strict racialist immigration” until 1965, and even then only lost that position to Jewish subversion.



"The influx of foreigners must, therefore, tend to produce a heterogeneous compound; to change and corrupt the national spirit; to complicate and confound public opinion; to introduce foreign propensities."
HAMILTON
"Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, (I conjure you to believe me fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of Republican Government."
WASHINGTON
"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate than that these people are to be free. Nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Nature, habit, opinion has drawn indelible lines of distinction between them."
JEFFERSON
"Facts are stubborn things; and whatever may be our wishes, our inclinations, or the dictates of our passions, they cannot alter the state of facts and evidence."
ADAMS
"To be consistent with existing and probably unalterable prejudices in the U.S. freed blacks ought to be permanently removed beyond the region occupied by or allotted to a White population."

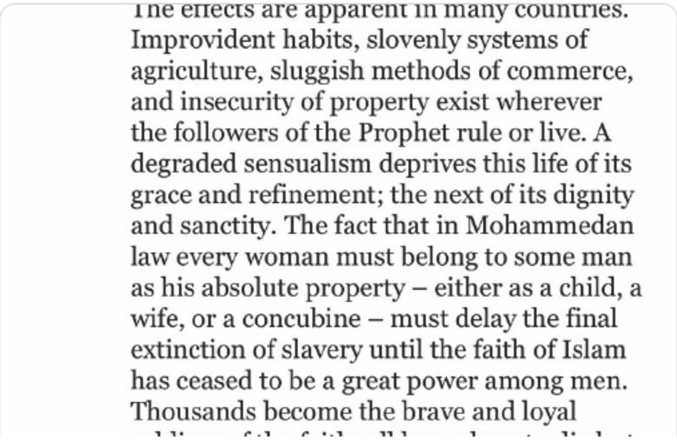
Churchill was right about one thing, at least:



The effects are apparent in many countries. Improvident habits, slovenly systems of agriculture, sluggish methods of commerce, and insecurity of property exist wherever the followers of the Prophet rule or live. A degraded sensualism deprives this life of its grace and refinement; the next of its dignity and sanctity. The fact that in Mohammedan law every woman must belong to some man as his absolute property – either as a child, a wife, or a concubine – must delay the final extinction of slavery until the faith of Islam has ceased to be a great power among men. HITLER'S DEFINITION OF SOCIALISM

"A Socialist is one who serves the common good without giving up his individuality or personality or the product of his personal efficiency. Our adopted term 'Socialist' has nothing to do with Marxian Socialism. Marxism is anti-property; true socialism is not. Marxism places no value on the individual, or individual effort, or efficiency; true Socialism values the individual and encourages him in individual efficiency, at the same time holding that his interests as an individual must be in consonance with those of the community. All great inventions, discoveries, achievements were first the product of an individual brain. It is charged against me that I am against property, that I am an atheist. Both charges are false."

Russians. They hated Russians. They hated Christians. Driven by ethnic hatred they tortured and slaughtered millions of Russians without a shred of human remorse.

It cannot be overstated. Bolshevism committed the greatest human slaughter of all time. The fact that most of the world is ignorant and uncaring about this enormous crime is proof that the global media is in the hands of the perpetrators."

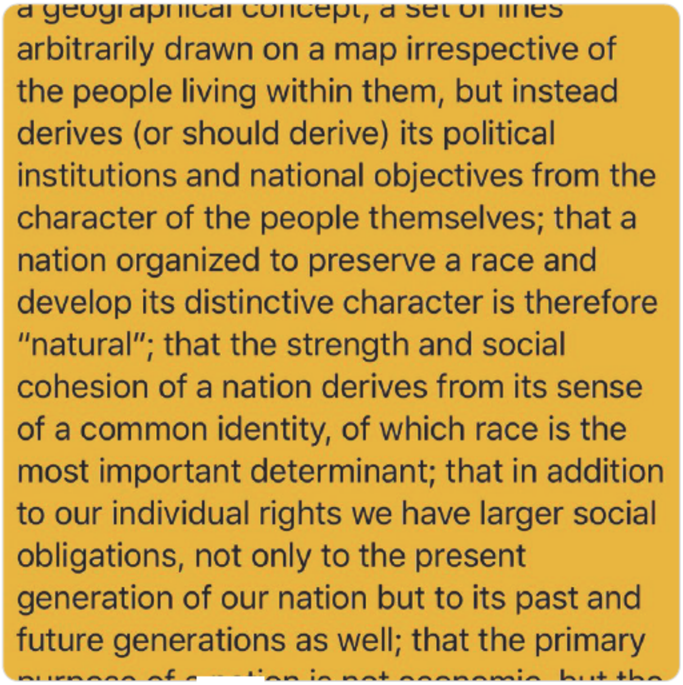
Politics is war by other means. Total political war is currently being waged against my race, which now holds meaningful political power almost nowhere in the West. I cannot avoid or ignore politics if I want to preserve my race. This is what I want out of politics:



a geographical concept, a set of lines arbitrarily drawn on a map irrespective of the people living within them, but instead derives (or should derive) its political institutions and national objectives from the character of the people themselves; that a nation organized to preserve a race and develop its distinctive character is therefore "natural"; that the strength and social cohesion of a nation derives from its sense of a common identity, of which race is the most important determinant; that in addition to our individual rights we have larger social obligations, not only to the present generation of our nation but to its past and future generations as well; that the primary purpose of a nation is not economic, but the

"A Socialist is one who serves the common good without giving up his individuality or personality or the product of his personal efficiency. Our adopted term 'Socialist' has nothing to do with Marxian Socialism. Marxism is anti-property; true socialism is not. Marxism places no value on the individual, or individual effort, or efficiency; true Socialism values the individual and encourages him in individual efficiency, at the same time holding that his interests as an individual must be in consonance with those of the community. All great inventions, discoveries, achievements were first the product of an individual brain. It is charged against me that I am against property, that I am an atheist. Both charges are false."

"GOOD PROPAGANDA DOES NOT NEED TO LIE; INDEED, IT MAY NOT LIE. IT HAS NO REASON TO FEAR THE TRUTH. IT IS A MISTAKE TO BELIEVE THAT PEOPLE CANNOT TAKE THE TRUTH. THEY CAN. IT IS ONLY A MATTER OF PRESENTING THE TRUTH TO THE PEOPLE IN A WAY THAT THEY WILL BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND. A PROPAGANDA THAT LIES PROVES THAT IT HAS A BAD CAUSE. IT CANNOT BE SUCCESSFUL IN THE LONG RUN."

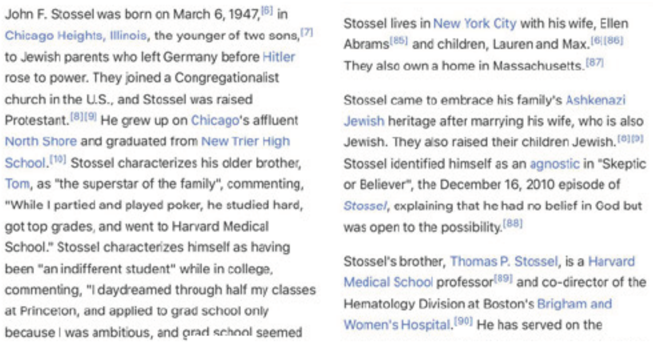
The who?



John F. Stossel was born on March 6, 1947,[6] in Chicago Heights, Illinois, the younger of two sons,[7] to Jewish parents who left Germany before Hitler rose to power. They joined a Congregationalist church in the U.S., and Stossel was raised Protestant.[8][9] He grew up on Chicago's affluent North Shore and graduated from New Trier High School.[10] Stossel characterizes his older brother, Tom, as "the superstar of the family", commenting, "While I partied and played poker, he studied hard, got top grades, and went to Harvard Medical School." Stossel characterizes himself as having been "an indifferent student" while in college, commenting, "I daydreamed through half my classes at Princeton, and applied to grad school only because I was ambitious, and grad school seemed

Stossel lives in New York City with his wife, Ellen Abrams[85] and children, Lauren and Max.[6][86] They also own a home in Massachusetts.[87]

Stossel came to embrace his family's Ashkenazi Jewish heritage after marrying his wife, who is also Jewish. They also raised their children Jewish.[8][9] Stossel identified himself as an agnostic in "Skeptic or Believer", the December 16, 2010 episode of Stossel, explaining that he had no belief in God but was open to the possibility.[88]

Stossel's brother, Thomas P. Stossel, is a Harvard Medical School professor[89] and co-director of the Hematology Division at Boston's Brigham and Women's Hospital.[90] He has served on the

No, the use of the term - especially pretending it has moral bearing, as you have - without supporting the position is the red herring.

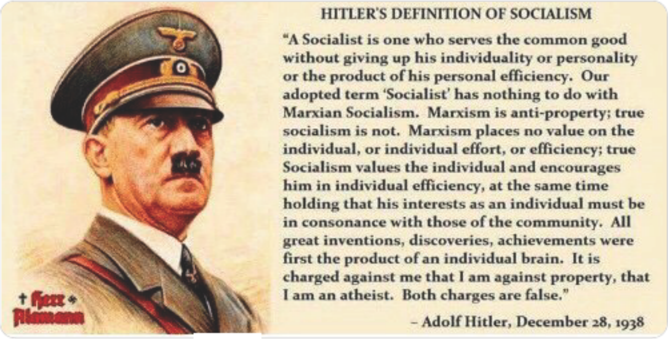
Improvident habits, slovenly systems of agriculture, sluggish methods of commerce, and insecurity of property exist wherever the followers of the Prophet rule or live. A degraded sensualism deprives this life of its grace and refinement; the next of its dignity and sanctity. The fact that in Mohammedan law every woman must belong to some man as his absolute property – either as a child, a wife, or a concubine – must delay the final extinction of slavery until the faith of Islam has ceased to be a great power among men. Thousands become the brave and loyal soldiers of the faith: all know how to die but the influence of the religion paralyses the social development of those who follow it. I was going to say "Damn, I thought this guy was smarter than this", but then stopped myself. Because in actuality he is smarter than this - but he's a shill. National Socialism is Right-wing (and, frankly, somewhat reactionary).



HITLER'S DEFINITION OF SOCIALISM

"A Socialist is one who serves the common good without giving up his individuality or personality or the product of his personal efficiency. Our adopted term 'Socialist' has nothing to do with Marxian Socialism. Marxism is anti-property; true socialism is not. Marxism places no value on the individual, or individual effort, or efficiency; true Socialism values the individual and encourages him in individual efficiency, at the same time holding that his interests as an individual must be in consonance with those of the community. All great inventions, discoveries, achievements were first the product of an individual brain. It is charged against me that I am against property, that I am an atheist. Both charges are false."

The real question is why the Western Allies defended Poland:

Germany invades Poland on Sept 1.

Britain and France, "in defense of Polish sovereignty", declare war on Germany on Sept 3.

The USSR also invades Poland on Sept 17.

Britain and France do nothing

Germany was set up.

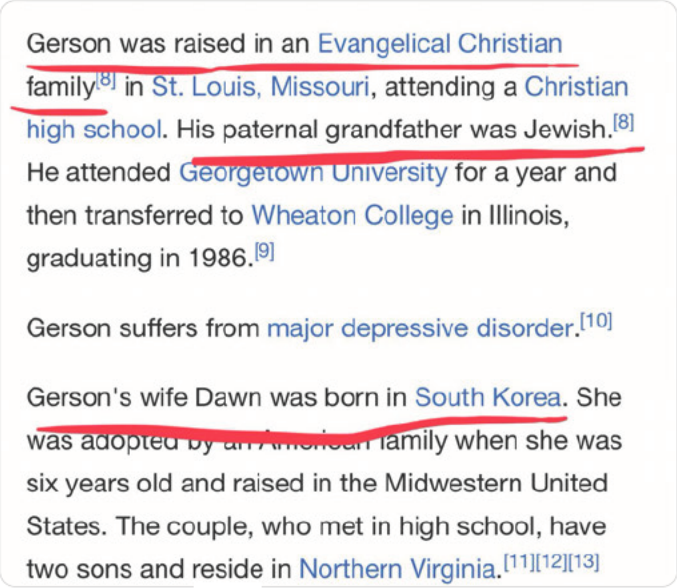
If all this didn't help, they pretended not to understand, or, if challenged, they changed the subject in a hurry, quoted platitudes which, if you accepted them, they immediately related to entirely different matters, and then, if again attacked, gave ground and pretended not to know exactly what you were talking about. Whenever you tried to attack one of these apostles, your hand closed on a jelly-like slime which divided up and poured through your fingers, but in the next moment collected again. But if you really struck one of these fellows so telling a blow that, observed by the audience, he couldn't help but agree, and if you believed that this had taken you at least one step forward, your amazement was great the next day. A few sentences from the author's bio is enough to utterly damn him. See here:



Gerson was raised in an Evangelical Christian family[8] in St. Louis, Missouri, attending a Christian high school. His paternal grandfather was Jewish.[8] He attended Georgetown University for a year and then transferred to Wheaton College in Illinois, graduating in 1986.[9]

Gerson suffers from major depressive disorder.[10]

Gerson's wife Dawn was born in South Korea. She was adopted by an American family when she was six years old and raised in the Midwestern United States. The couple, who met in high school, have two sons and reside in Northern Virginia.[11][12][13]

My feelings as a Christian points me to my Lord and Savior as a fighter. It points me to the man who once in loneliness, surrounded only by a few followers, recognized these Jews for what they were and summoned men to fight against them and who, God's truth! was greatest not as a sufferer but as a fighter. In boundless love as a Christian and as a man I read through the passage which tells us how the Lord at last rose in His might and seized the scourge to drive out of the Temple the brood of vipers and adders. How terrific was His fight for the world against the Jewish poison. To-day, after two thousand years, with deepest emotion I recognize more profoundly than ever before in the fact that it was for this that He had to shed His blood upon the Cross. As a Christian I have no duty to allow myself to be cheated, but I have the duty to be a fighter for truth and justice.... And if there is anything which could demonstrate that we are acting rightly it is the distress that daily grows. For as a Christian I have also a duty to my own people.... When I go out in the morning and see these men standing in their queues and look into their pinched faces, then I believe I would be no Christian, but a very devil if I felt no pity for them, if I did not, as did our Lord two thousand years ago, turn Precisely. These people are intellectual/emotional children.

I wonder if they've ever had an actual relationship, or even a roommate.

I don't have to "hate" (whatever that's supposed to mean hese days) or even dislike someone to know WE'RE BETTER OFF NOT LIVING TOGETHER.

“Human” isn’t a meaningful term, is the point. If both of the creatures pictured below are “human” - taking into account cognition, as well - what possible validity can the classification have? Again, absent social/political concerns, “human” races would be called species.

Neanderthals had significantly smaller cortices than “humans”, but a higher density of neurons. Interbreeding created specimens with both the large cortical volume and high neuron density, marking a leap forward in cognitive ability. These evolved into Mongoloids and Caucasoids.

You must understand, the leading Bolsheviks who took over Russia were not Russians. They hated Russians. They hated Christians. Driven by ethnic hatred they tortured and slaughtered millions of Russians without a shred of human remorse.

It cannot be overstated. Bolshevism committed the greatest human slaughter of all time. The fact that most of the world is ignorant and uncaring about this enormous crime is proof that the global media is in the hands of the perpetrators."

China beginning to allow some entrepreneurial economic dynamics has nothing to do with our values (note their simultaneously horrendous record on civil liberties) and everything to do with economic gain. They're Communists. It just so

Japan is homogeneous and intelligent enough that it's never had to have totalitarianism to maintain order. They're of course also not the best example for "adopting" Western values: they still operate under the Constitution we imposed on them at nuke-point

You contradict yourself. To the extent the Anglosphere is abandoning Western values, it's precisely BECAUSE of its political move leftward - which is, again, by a 2:1 margin, aided by your favored immigrants.

LMAO

You've totally lost the plot. You CANNOT vote Democrat/Left and "live Western Values". Hell, you have to carefully choose from among a cadre of certain Republicans to even make an earnest effort at it.

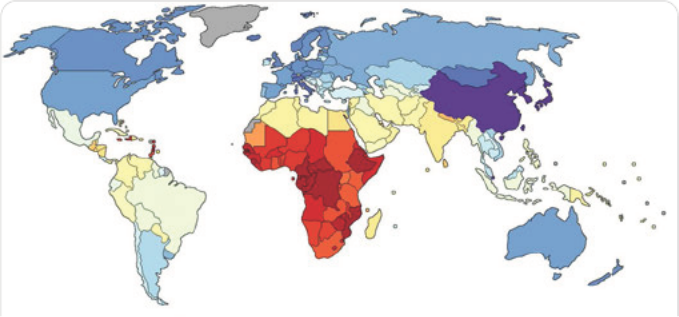
2) Race shapes worldview.

3) A 15 point IQ gap is the point at which people start to find each other annoying. A 30 point gap renders communication of ideas almost impossible.

Pure Dure Sûre @PureDureSure · 17 Jul 2018

If you honestly think that race is confined to pigmentation, I can't help you. Race is an expression of a basket of shared genes, determining everything from stature and structure to IQ and behavioral patterns.



2) You are of a different ethnicity, but of the same race. So there is a much narrower gap to bridge. Hence the original limitation of US citizenship to "free White persons".

Convincing others isn't about what we know, but what we can prove.

"Nazi" is a derogatory term (coined by a Jew) for a member of the National Socialist German Workers' Party, which no longer exists.

So I don't see how I can claim to be something that doesn't itself exist.

But yes, I absolutely do subscribe to the Hitlerian worldview.

Pure Dure Sûre @PureDureSure · 11 Jul 2018
Replying to @PureDureSure @CalyxxT and 6 others

This is why the Jewish worldview is inherently exclusive (they don't evangelize) and supremacist in nature. The theology itself relies on a circular relationship in which the Jews themselves are capable of things God himself is not.

Hence, it's - system of racial self-worship.

Pure Dure Sûre @PureDureSure · 11 Jul 2018
Replying to @PureDureSure @CalyxxT and 6 others

So God made the world, and it's inherently flawed. He's counting on the Jews to bear the burden of correcting it.

Don't you see that, logically, this has to mean that the Jewish race must necessarily possess a creative/curative capacity greater than that of God himself?

I'll explain.

Jewish theology holds:

Jews are "chosen". This doesn't mean it's a free ride. It's actually a position of responsibility. It's not a favor as much as it is a burden ("Oy gevalt!")

This responsibility is "Tikkun Olam": to "heal"/fix the world.

It's not emotional or personal - which is why none of you children understand this. It's not about one single person being "better" than another because of their race. It's about one race - in the aggregate - in its entirety - being better than another. Law of large numbers.

We Don't Know What's Going On In Sweden, But We Love It

Sandy Baker
Culture Writer, The Huffington Post

Sifting through the data of the so-called "Migrant Crisis" (more like Migrant Miracle, but we'll get to that), it's astonishing to see some of the figures. Over the last year, interracial couples featuring migrant males have risen 71%. Even more surprising (or not?) is Sweden's sudden baby boom. Around 9 months after the "Crisis" began, a record number of babies were born. We know. Another one to wrap your head around - for the first time in the history of Nordic countries, more mixed race babies were born than natives. Whoa.

greatest not as a sufferer but as a fighter. In boundless love as a Christian and as a man I read through the passage which tells us how the Lord at last rose in His might and seized the scourge to drive out of the Temple the brood of vipers and adders. How terrific was His fight for the world against the Jewish poison. To-day, after two thousand years, with deepest emotion I recognize more profoundly than ever before in the fact that it was for this that He had to shed His blood upon the Cross. As a Christian I have no duty to allow myself to be cheated, but I have the duty to be a fighter for truth and justice.... And if there is anything which could demonstrate that we are acting rightly it is the distress that daily grows. For as a Christian I have also a duty to my own people.... When I go out in the morning and see these men standing in their queues and look into their pinched faces, then I believe I would be no Christian, but a very devil if I felt no pity for them, if I did not, as did our Lord two thousand years ago, turn against those by whom to-day this poor people is plundered and exploited.

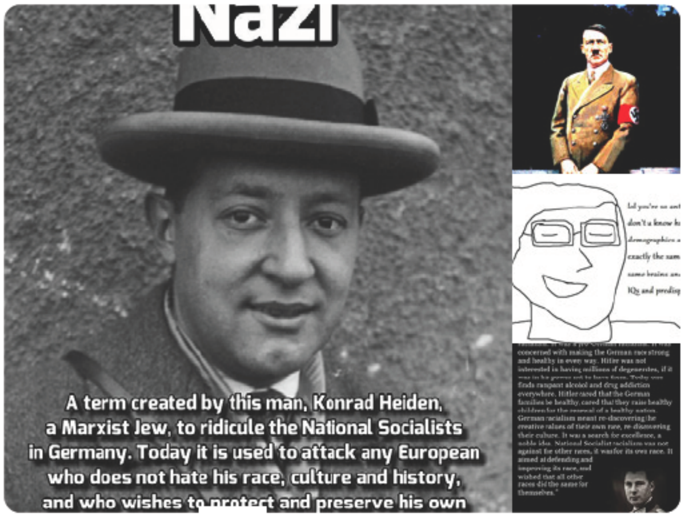
Again, a simple pejorative. You never explain what "racist" is, let alone why it's immoral or even incorrect.



A term created by this man, Konrad Heiden, a Marxist Jew, to ridicule the National Socialists in Germany. Today it is used to attack any European who does not hate his race, culture and history, and who wishes to protect and preserve his own concerned with making the German race strong and healthy in every way. Hitler was not interested in having millions of degenerates, if it was in his power not to have them. Today one finds rampant alcohol and drug addiction everywhere. Hitler cared that the German families be healthy, cared that they raise healthy children for the renewal of a healthy nation. German racialism meant re-discovering the creative values of their own race, re-discovering their culture. It was a search for excellence, a noble idea. National Socialist racialism was not against the other races, it was for its own race. It aimed at defending and improving its race, and wished that all other races did the same for themselves."

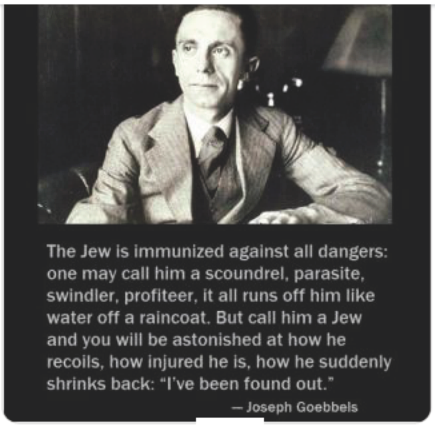
On Jews, History and "Refugees" - theoccidentalobserver.net/2015/09/on-jew…



The Jew is immunized against all dangers: one may call him a scoundrel, parasite, swindler, profiteer, it all runs off him like water off a raincoat. But call him a Jew and you will be astonished at how he recoils, how injured he is, how he suddenly shrinks back: "I've been found out."
